

DADDY & BOY CONTRACT

I. General

Let it be known, this document is by no means what so ever a document of legal standing and admissible in a court of civil or criminal law. That should either parties listed within this document fail to abide by this agreement that neither may be held accountable by any recognized legal court system and this document hold status as evidence in such, but where an illegal activity has taken place both parties may be held accountable should a violation of personal rights and or well being without consent occur. That we both are consenting adults, recognizing and accepting our needs within a relationship, and with that understanding have willfully consented to the terms and guidelines listed through out this document.

In addition, we also understand and agree that, when two people enter into the alternative lifestyle known as D/s, or a dominant/submissive, Daddy/boy style relationship, certain limitations and safety protocols should be put into place. This document should list such limitations and safety protocols that have been negotiated and agreed upon, as well as any issues, desires and needs so that there is no confusion as to the nature of the relationship and all that is to take place within it. That all that occurs within the relationship be safe, sane and consensual by and for the parties involved.

II. Roles Defined

Daddy, A dominant individual whose whole needs, motives and desires are to see to the well being, both mentally, physically and spiritually of his boy through proper training, guidance and discipline and gaining satisfaction in the provision of such and to provide a proper environment where both parities may grow in all areas of life fulfilling each others needs and desires.

boy, A submissive individual whose whole needs, motives and desires are to serve, please and obey his Daddy both mentally, physically and spiritually through proper training, guidance and discipline and gaining satisfaction in the reception of such and to maintain a proper environment where both parities may grow in all areas of life fulfilling each others needs and desires.
